

Good afternoon!

April showers bring May flowers, they say. With all the rain we have had, one might assume we're in for lots of flowers! That said, we had a really fantastic time getting outside to observe a bit of the solar eclipse. Thanks, again, to the Palisades Community Foundation for supplying everyone with solar eclipse viewing glasses. It was a fun memory to make together!

Also, on Friday of last week, we had 13 acts take to the stage at Palisades High School for the annual Tinicum Talent Show. Kudos to all of our students who demonstrated courage and grit by performing in front of their peers and many audience members. Also, many thanks to our PTA volunteers for coordinating the snack stand and gift bags for each participant.

This afternoon, we participated in our quarterly schoolwide positive assembly and activity. We hosted a paper plane contest! The boys and girls had a great time circulating among a variety of stations. Additionally, our school was visited by the Citadel Credit Union, as our very own Miss Hamilton was nominated for and was selected to receive a prestigious award - The Citadel Heart of Learning Award. Kudos to Miss Hamilton for earning this recognition!

Enjoy the weekend!
