Congrats!

Good afternoon!

What a windy and rainy week we've had! The short respite from the downpours and the peeking through of the sun allowed us to get outside for some much needed fresh air for recess on Thursday. Let's hope that the majority of our days are filled with sun so we can be outside and enjoying our beautiful yard space for as many days of the week as possible!

Pictured above are our second graders who participated in this week's Multiplication March Madness competition. We had 60% of our student body (grades 2 - 5) volunteer to participate! The students competed against each other in an Around the World style event, trying to be the first to correctly answer the multiplication problem. Our five winners are listed above, just below the picture. Kudos to all of our students who made the effort to participate! Keep up the great work, and practice, practice, practice! We'll plan to have another event in March 2025!

On Monday, we will have the unique opportunity to experience the solar eclipse. Palisades Community Foundation was gracious enough to supply solar eclipse viewing glasses for all students, faculty and staff! We have been preparing students with lessons about what an eclipse is and what are the differences between solar and lunar eclipses. We will provide additional reminders and expectations on Monday. Here at Tinicum, we will be experiencing the eclipse together from 3:10 until 3:20. We are excited to make a learning experience out of this unique event.

Enjoy the weekend!
