

Congratulations to our students, faculty, and staff for making it through the first full week of school! (Although it's week three, it was our first five days in a row!) Whether it was the sound of two-digit multiplication or the blending of letter sounds, the amount of teaching and learning in our classrooms (and other learning spaces) was awesome. When I asked one of our students how her day is going, she said, "I love school." 😊

In addition to our core subjects, the Tinicum Tigers continue to enjoy their daily time in library, art, music, physical education, health, and Spanish. Each time I walk past (or into) those classrooms/learning spaces, our students are engaged and participating in the various activities that their teachers are leading.

Enjoy the weekend! The weather forecast looks to be amazing, so enjoy as much time as possible outside! I'll be taking some off-screen time this weekend, and I encourage you to do the same.

NOTES FOR FAMILIES

1. Thank you to everyone in the car rider line for helping us by not showing up to campus before 3:15. The lines have been great and our students have been exiting in a safe and orderly manner each day. As a reminder, if you are not an everyday car rider and need to pick up your child(ren) at the end of the day, please send an email to tinicumpickup@palisd.org no later than 3 PM. Please include the name of the student(s) (first and last), as well as the name of the person picking him/her up (first and last). Our staff will ask for a photo ID to verify.
